

SATEFL

The Scottish Association for the Teaching of English as a Foreign Language

SATEFL AGM and talk by Stacey Holliday Hughes

Saturday 1st December 2018 - 10:00-12:30 at
Edinburgh School of English
271 Canongate, Royal Mile, Edinburgh EH8 8BQ

‘Speaking in Context’

10:00	Registration, refreshments and time to browse the book display
10:30	SATEFL AGM
11:00	Stacey Holliday Hughes talk and discussion
12:00	Coffee and biscuits
12:30	Close

Research has shown that teaching grammar in context facilitates learning of structures. In addition to using context for presenting grammar, teachers can extend the context to help students use English for oral communication. This talk presents practical ways teachers can contextualise language in order for students to practice meaningful speaking.

Members: free - Non-members: £10, payable on the day

Please book in advance with SATEFL Secretary: eloise.bicket@gcu.ac.uk

Membership

Individual £35 – Student, unwaged £15
Institutional £70 (2 people), £150 (5 people)

For more information or to renew membership, please contact sateflmembership@gmail.com

More information on our website and Facebook

Website: www.satefl.co.uk

Facebook: www.facebook.co.uk/satefl.org