Creative Podcasting for the ESL Classroom

3 pm to 4 pm UK Time

Podcasting is more than just the audio file. In this workshop, we'll explore the key components of creating a show and discuss how to engage students with this medium. This workshop is ideal for educators seeking creative, podcast-based tasks that develop both receptive and productive skills.

Tracking Progression through Participatory ESOL

4.15 pm to 5.15 pm UK Time

There is a need for tutors and learners of ESOL to become more aware of meaningful progression routes by building on existing skills, knowledge and experience. As part of my work and for my dissertation, I developed and critically evaluated a resource which was designed for this purpose and could be used as a tool for self-reflection and awareness-raising in a participatory context.
